ABSOLUTELY INCREDIBLE KID DAY

7 Ideas to Celebrate your Absolutely Incredible Kid

Prepare a special breakfast

7:00 a.m.

There isn't always time to make a homemade breakfast when the family is rushing to get ready for school and work. One idea for Incredible Kid Day is to slow down and enjoy a special breakfast together. Picky eater? Consider making breakfast together as a fun activity.

Let them interview you

4:00 p.m.

Mix up the standard "how was your day" question and pretend you're a newscaster interviewing a special guest. Invite your kiddo to do the same to you! Don't forget to cut for playful commercials and weather updates.

Set an example by giving back

6:00 p.m.

Celebrate your child by making a donation to a cause that supports your child's growth. All donations made to Julie Billiard Schools on Absolutely Incredible Kid Day will go toward tuition support for our children. If you'd like to consider a gift to Julie Billiard Schools, please visit juliebilliardschool.org/support. You can also join your child in a service project, like planting flowers, visiting an elderly home or collecting food for the homeless.

Leave a note in their lunchbox

7:30 a.m.

Slip a special note into your child's lunchbox to give them an extra boost of love and encouragement during the school day.

Honor their energy

3:00 p.m.

Your kiddo might have some extra energy to burn after the school day. Consider a trip to your local park or a bike ride or walk around your neighborhood.

Play a game

5:00 p.m.

Does your child enjoy puzzles, Legos, card games, or video games? Ask if you can join them in one of these activities. We believe that play is an essential part of learning and connection.

Reflect and connect

7:00 p.m.

Talk with your child about Absolutely Incredible Kid Day. Tell them how much you believe in them. Ask: What was your favorite part of today? What activities would you like to repeat? What other activities would you like to do together?

You know your child better than anyone, and not all of these ideas will be appropriate for your kiddo. We simply want to encourage you to celebrate your child on Absolutely Incredible Kid Day, which is a nationally-recognized holiday that falls on March 19, 2020. At Julie Billiard Schools, we believe in celebrating the unique successes, challenges, and growth of all of our amazing kids every day. We're honored to join you on this journey of education and enrichment.
